

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA

CIRCUIT CIVIL DIVISION

CASE NO.: 10-33653 CA 4

INSTITUTO NACIONAL DE SEGUROS,

Plaintiff,

vs.

HEMISPHERIC REINSURANCE GROUP, L.L.C.
and HOWDEN INSURANCE BROKERS LIMITED,

Defendants.

THIRD AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Instituto Nacional de Seguros (“INS”) sues defendants Hemispheric Reinsurance Group, L.L.C. (“HRG”) and Howden Insurance Brokers Limited (“Howden”), and alleges in the Third Amended Complaint (the “Complaint”) as follows:

Nature of Action

1. HRG and Howden were the brokers responsible for the procurement of reinsurance (which is also known as the “placement” of reinsurance) on behalf of INS for one of INS’s direct policies for the 2009-2010 policy year (the “2009 Reinsurance Program” or “Program”). Instead of properly discharging their duties and obligations to INS as reinsurance brokers, the Defendants intentionally or negligently overcharged INS several million dollars in brokerage, premium and taxes in connection with the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Moreover, the Defendants compounded their wrongful acts by intentionally concealing, or negligently failing to disclose, relevant information regarding the amounts owed by INS, to whom HRG and Howden

EXHIBIT

(as INS's agents) owed a fiduciary duty and a duty of reasonable care. With respect to the overcharging of premium and taxes and in the alternative to INS's other causes of action, certain of the Defendants' acts or omissions (which are alleged in further detail below) constituted fraudulent or negligent misrepresentations or constructive fraud.

2. Accordingly, INS has brought this action for breach of contract (express and implied), negligence/broker malpractice, breach of fiduciary duty, imposition of a constructive trust, aiding and abetting a breach of fiduciary duty, fraudulent misrepresentation, negligent misrepresentation and constructive fraud against HRG and/or Howden. INS seeks compensatory damages, in addition to attorneys' fees and interest, for the harm it has suffered as a result of the Defendants' wrongful acts and omissions.

Jurisdiction and Parties

3. The damages in this action exceed $15,000, exclusive of attorneys' fees, interest and costs.

4. INS is a Costa Rican state-owned insurance company with its principal place of business in San José, Costa Rica.

5. HRG is a Florida limited liability company with its principal place of business in Miami-Dade County, Florida. HRG is a broker engaged in, among other things, the business of obtaining reinsurance for insurance companies.

6. Howden is a company registered in England and Wales with its principal place of business in London, England. Howden is a broker engaged in, among other things, the business of obtaining reinsurance for insurance companies.

7. At the times relevant to this action, HRG and Howden acted as co-brokers for INS in connection with the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program pursuant to an express or implied contract between INS, on the one hand, and HRG and Howden, on the other hand.

8. In the alternative and even if there was no contract among INS, HRG and Howden, HRG and Howden jointly provided broking services to INS, with HRG acting as the broker and Howden acting as a sub-broker. In their capacity as brokers for the 2009 Reinsurance Program and wholly independent of any contractual relationship, HRG and Howden owed INS a duty of reasonable care and a fiduciary duty.

9. This Court has jurisdiction over HRG, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 48.193(1)(a), because it conducts business operations in the State of Florida and the causes of action alleged herein arose out of those activities. Moreover, upon information and belief, HRG committed tortious acts within Florida, so there is also jurisdiction over HRG under Fla. Stat. § 48.193(1)(b). In addition, this Court has jurisdiction over HRG, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 48.193(2), because HRG engages in substantial activity in Florida.

10. Howden conducted business in Florida in connection with the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program by, among other things: participating in the preparation of materials sent from Florida to Costa Rica relating to HRG and Howden's request to provide broking services to INS; responding to requests from INS (via HRG) to procure reinsurance for INS; sending representatives to Florida to meet with HRG regarding the 2009 Reinsurance Program; sending communications to HRG in Florida and entering into agreements with HRG with respect to the 2009 Reinsurance Program, including, but not limited to, agreements regarding the amounts that INS would be charged and the method for charging INS; and negotiating with reinsurers in Florida regarding the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Howden has conducted other business in Florida in addition to its activities relating to the 2009 Reinsurance Program, including, but not limited to, broking activities relating to the placement of other reinsurance for INS, the performance of certain broking services for HRG and the placement of reinsurance for other clients in Florida. Howden's affiliate, Howden Insurance LLC, engages in other insurance-related business in Florida and maintains an office at 1111 Brickell Avenue, Suite 2725, Miami, Florida 33131.

11. Therefore, this Court has jurisdiction over Howden pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 48.193(1)(a) and § 48.193(1)(b). This Court also has jurisdiction over Howden, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 48.193(2), because Howden engages in substantial activity in Florida.

12. Venue in Miami-Dade County is proper because HRG has an office for transaction of its customary business in Miami-Dade County and several of the various causes of action against HRG and Howden alleged in this Complaint accrued in Miami-Dade County.

13. Any conditions precedent to bringing this action have been performed or have been waived.

General Allegations

A. Overview of INS's Claims

14. As part of its operations, INS has for several years provided property damage and business interruption direct insurance coverage for Instituto Costarricense de Electricidad (“ICE”), the Costa Rican state-owned electricity and telecommunications supplier, through policy U-500 (the “ICE Policy”). INS has purchased reinsurance with respect to such coverage in the markets outside of Costa Rica. Reinsurance is protection — sometimes described as insurance for insurance companies — that a direct insurer (the “reinsured”) often obtains in order to spread the risks covered in the policies that it issues to its underlying insureds.

15. INS used the services of HRG and Howden to procure reinsurance for the ICE Policy through the 2009 Reinsurance Program, as well as for the reinsurance of the ICE Policy in the preceding 2007-2008 and 2008-2009 policy years (the “Prior Reinsurance Program”). Reinsurance brokers are typically compensated through brokerage (or “commission”) that is deducted from the reinsurance premium paid by the reinsured to the broker for transmission to the reinsurer(s) through the broker. The maximum premium for a layer of reinsurance (before any deductions) is often reflected on a document known as a reinsurance “slip.”<sup>14</sup> After receiving the premium from the reinsured, the broker retains its commission and passes along the remaining amount to the reinsurer or reinsurers. The amount of compensation for reinsurance brokers is either a percentage of the premium or a fixed fee amount, which can be deducted from the premium (as described above) or paid directly by the reinsured. Absent unusual circumstances or an agreement to the contrary (which were not present here), brokers generally act as the agents of the reinsured for the purposes of placing reinsurance.

16. As alleged below, the remuneration for HRG and Howden for the 2009 Reinsurance Program was an agreed-upon, fixed fee of $187,530 set forth in a contract among INS, HRG and Howden. HRG and Howden, however, breached the contract by, among other things, paying themselves more than the fixed fee amount, without INS’s advance knowledge and consent. HRG and Howden deducted their commission from monies that INS paid in late May 2009, mischaracterizing the amount paid by INS as solely "premium." As described below, the maximum premium for the Program was far less than what the Defendants charged, and the Defendants — in addition to overcharging the amount of brokerage — wrongfully added their commission to the maximum premium. When INS made the first premium payment, HRG retained its portion of the surcharged commission and sent Howden its share. Howden deducted additional brokerage — also in an amount that was far more than the agreed-upon $187,530 — from INS's first premium installment that it received from HRG in early June 2009.

<sup>14</sup> A slip is a document indicating that the reinsurer is willing to participate in the reinsurance program and it usually contains the basic terms of the contract between the reinsured and reinsurer. In some instances, slips will be superseded by contract wordings. In other cases, there are no contract wordings and the slips (known as “slip policies”) set forth all the relevant terms of the transactions between the reinsured and the reinsurers, including the reinsurance premium.

17. In the alternative and in the event there was no contractual relationship among the parties, the Defendants were negligent or in breach of their fiduciary duties. HRG and Howden (a) failed to meet the requirements of INS in procuring the reinsurance, which included a requirement that brokers obtain the best price available; (b) deducted an unreasonable amount of brokerage, under the circumstances, for the provision of broking services before passing along premium to the reinsurers; (c) failed to exercise reasonable diligence and skill by charging "premium" (which was in fact commission in another guise) in excess of the amount set forth in the slips and by not disclosing to INS critical information concerning the Program; and (d) otherwise breached the duties they owed to INS.

18. Furthermore, and in the alternative, certain of HRG and Howden's acts and omissions regarding the overcharging of premium and taxes constituted actionable misrepresentations, either intentional or negligent, or were an abuse of the fiduciary relationship between INS and the Defendants.

B. The Prior Reinsurance Program

19. In the Prior Reinsurance Program, the slips set forth the maximum premium prior to any deductions, which Howden refers to as the "slip premium to order."<sup>2</sup> The slips also showed the deductions from such premium for taxes and total allowable brokerage.<sup>3</sup> For both of the policy years in the Prior Reinsurance Program, INS paid premium that consisted of the slip premium to order minus an amount for applicable Costa Rican taxes. Thus, the amounts paid by INS as reinsurance premium for the Prior Reinsurance Program did not exceed the slip premium to order shown on the slips. The Defendants were compensated for the services provided in connection with the Prior Reinsurance Program through commission that they deducted from the slip premium to order before passing the reinsurance premium to the reinsurers.

20. Over the course of 2007 and 2008, HRG assured INS on several occasions that the Prior Reinsurance Program (which HRG placed jointly with Howden) would be handled on a fully transparent basis. Such transparency included the production of reinsurance slips and other documentation showing the premium and commission for the Prior Reinsurance Program. HRG also applied in 2007 to become a registered broker with INS. When INS accepted HRG's application on or around October 18, 2007, it set forth the ongoing requirements for brokers placing business on behalf of INS. In addition to requiring that the brokers provide copies of the slips (and other documents) containing information regarding the premium and commission for the placement, INS stated that "[t]he best conditions in terms of price and coverage must be obtained in each deal." (Copies of the Oct. 18, 2007 letter and a certified English translation are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B.)

<sup>2</sup> As alleged below, INS did not receive complete and accurate copies of the slips for the Prior Reinsurance Program until well after this action began.

<sup>3</sup> A broker may take less than the brokerage "allowed" in the slips. In the Prior Reinsurance Program, the Defendants' combined commission was significantly lower than the allowable brokerage.

21. In 2007 and 2008, and the continuing into 2009, INS made numerous requests for the slips and other documentation for the Prior Reinsurance Program so it could confirm the amount of premium and brokerage. It was not until early May 2009 — after years of inexcusable delay — that the Defendants finally produced what they claimed were the slips for the Prior Reinsurance Program. However, when they provided such slips to INS, the Defendants omitted critical pages showing the brokerage — which information INS had expressly requested — and HRG physically altered the pages that were sent to INS by erasing all references to Howden (in an obvious attempt to conceal or minimize Howden's role in the placement). INS did not receive the full and unaltered copies of the slips for the Prior Reinsurance Program until they were produced in 2012 as part of discovery in this case.

22. In June 2007, HRG also purported to provide INS with information regarding the total brokerage for the reinsurance of the ICE Policy for the 2007-2008 policy year. Angel Martínez of HRG informed Liannette Castillo of INS that the total commission (i.e., for all brokers working on the placement) was approximately 4% of the reinsurance premium. INS learned in the course of this action that the figures provided by HRG were inaccurate and much lower than the actual total brokerage taken by the Defendants.

23. In late May 2009 and early June 2009, HRG again misreported the total commission for the Prior Reinsurance Program. HRG sent charts to INS in which it stated that the commission earned by all brokers, including Howden, for the policy years 2007-2008 and 2008-2009 was approximately $480,000 and $241,000, respectively. Once more, it was not until the discovery phase of this action that INS learned that the figures provided by HRG were inaccurate and much lower than the actual total brokerage taken by the Defendants.

C. INS's Invitation to Bid for 2009 Reinsurance Program

24. In or about January 2009, INS determined that its brokerage costs in connection with the reinsurance of the ICE Policy needed to be reduced for the upcoming policy year. INS wanted to keep the cost of the 2009 Reinsurance Program as low as possible without sacrificing the quality of reinsurers, which could have occurred had INS instead sought savings through a reduction in premium alone. Accordingly, INS decided that the broker for the 2009 Reinsurance Program would be selected in a "beauty contest" procedure in which multiple brokers would submit bids for the brokerage relating to the placement of the Program.

25. In February 2009, INS invited several brokers to participate in the "beauty contest" procedure. INS sent the brokers, including HRG, a document entitled "Invitation to Bid," which sets forth the mandatory terms for the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program and requested bids ("ofertas" in Spanish) for brokerage from the brokers. (Copies of the Invitation to Bid in Spanish (as sent to the brokers) and a certified English translation are attached hereto as Exhibits C and D.)

26. The Invitation to Bid required brokers to submit a proposal based on a fixed brokerage fee that could not be altered after the submission of the proposal or withdrawn during a specified period. (See id. at ¶¶ 3, 9.) The Invitation to Bid expressly states that "[t]he Brokerage Fee should be presented as a fixed amount" (id. at ¶ 3) and further provides that: "The Broker shall not, under any circumstances, after submission of its Bid, modify the conditions of the proposal alleging lack of information or insufficient data regarding the Services, local conditions or inability to obtain data, under penalty of disqualification.” (Id. at ¶ 8.) In addition, the Invitation to Bid unconditionally provides that the bids in response must remain open and may not be withdrawn by the brokers for a period of 90 days. (Id. at ¶ 9.)

27. The “beauty contest” was limited to brokerage and the brokers were instructed not to obtain a quote for the premium of the Program at the preliminary stage. However, the Invitation to Bid does state that the selected broker would later be required to obtain (and provide to INS) documentation showing the reinsurance premium for the Program. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

28. The Invitation to Bid further requires that the proposal from the brokers must include, among other things, the curriculum vitae of all key personnel providing services in connection with the 2009 Reinsurance Program and confirmation by the broker that it holds a valid E & O (errors and omissions) policy indicating the liability limit. (See id. at ¶¶ 3, 8.)

D. The Bid by HRG and Howden for the 2009 Reinsurance Program

29. On or around February 15, 2009, HRG and Howden submitted their joint proposal (the “HRG/Howden Bid”) — which was a revision of an earlier proposal — for placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program. (Copies of the Spanish version of the HRG/Howden Bid (as submitted) and a certified English translation are attached hereto as Exhibits E and F, respectively.) HRG and Howden agreed to a fixed fee of $187,530 “[o]r for any other amount that might be established or agreed upon between the parties in accordance with the [Invitation to Bid].” (Id.) At no point did the parties agree upon brokerage other than the $187,530 quoted in the HRG/Howden Bid. As required by the Invitation to Bid, the HRG/Howden Bid unconditionally stated that it would remain open, and would not be withdrawn, for a period of 90 days after its submission.

30. The HRG/Howden Bid made it clear that both HRG and Howden would participate in the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program. In discussing the prior experience in placing medium to large scale risks (as required by the Invitation to Bid), the HRG/Howden Bid refers to placements by HRG “along with Howden Insurance Brokers, Ltd.” (Id. at ¶ 3(c).) Even more importantly, the Bid lists four Howden employees “as persons assigned to the placement of the account” and attaches their CVs. (Id. at ¶ 3(h).) The CVs of the Howden employees are listed before the CVs of the HRG employees, which illustrates the prominent role that Howden would play in the placement. Indeed, the HRG/Howden Bid and other information provided to INS emphasized Howden’s experience in the London and global insurer market, which is significant given that a large portion of the 2009 Reinsurance Program was placed in those markets.

31. Moreover, in satisfaction of the requirement in the Invitation to Bid that any proposal include confirmation by “the broker” that it holds a valid E & O policy, the HRG/Howden Bid attached evidence of both Howden’s and HRG’s E & O insurance. John H. Blake (“Blake”) of HRG signed the HRG/Howden Bid and on that same page he describes the E & O insurance as “our” policies.” (Id.) It is noteworthy that Neil Holden of Howden was one of the witnesses on the document where Blake collectively refers to “our” E & O policies. (Id.) Howden was also the broker for HRG’s E & O policy, which provides further evidence of the close cooperation between Howden and HRG.

E. HRG and Howden Place the 2009 Reinsurance Program

32. In mid-February 2009, after receiving bids from HRG/Howden and other brokers, INS selected Willis Limited (“Willis”) as the broker for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Willis’s bid was $195,000. However, in mid-March 2009, following discussions with ICE, INS decided to select two other brokers (in addition to HRG and Howden) to obtain premium quotes from reinsurers for the 2009 Reinsurance Program.<sup>47</sup> INS did not re-open the bidding process for brokerage when it chose to have three brokers obtain premium quotes. Under the express terms of the Invitation to Bid and the responses, the brokerage bids of the various brokers (including the HRG/Howden Bid) remained open as of mid-March 2009 and were valid until mid-May 2009. INS was unable to find a third broker to submit a premium quote, but it did obtain premium quotes from HRG/Howden and Willis on or about April 1 and 2, 2009. In providing the premium quotes, HRG/Howden and Willis were still bound by their prior brokerage bids from the “beauty contest” procedure.

33. Willis's premium quote was $11,350,000. HRG and Howden submitted four options, with premium ranging from $10,476,191 to $13,768,639 (the latter of which was denominated as Option 2.b). The HRG/Howden quotes submitted to INS on April 1, 2009 were based on information that Howden had obtained from reinsurers regarding the anticipated premium for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. The premium quotes from both sets of brokers included Costa Rican tax at a rate of 5.5%, which means that the net premium (i.e., after tax) for the various quotes would be lower to account for the tax component.

34. On or about April 1, 2009, before submitting their premium quotes to INS, HRG and Howden agreed — without INS's knowledge or authorization — that both brokers would take an amount of brokerage in excess of the binding premium quotes that Howden provided for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Such a practice of adding brokerage to the maximum reinsurance premium (in the absence of the client's consent) is known as "grossing up" and it is widely recognized in the reinsurance industry as improper.

<sup>47</sup> ICE suggested the change from one broker to three brokers, for purposes of obtaining premium quotes, after HRG and Howden contacted ICE through a local agent in Costa Rica, Ricardo Retana. The Defendants agreed that Mr. Retana would be paid a percentage of the premium, in an amount of approximately $400,000, for his efforts, but the payment has not yet been made because of the pendency of this action. The contacts between the underlying insured and the Defendants, through Mr. Retana, were improper and prohibited.

35. The Defendants' secret agreement to surcharge their commission and pass it off as "premium" is evidenced by an April 1, 2009 e-mail from Mr. Holden to Mr. Blake and Jesús Alberto Marcano of HRG. (A copy of the April 1, 2009 e-mail is attached hereto as Exhibit G.) In the e-mail, Mr. Holden informed HRG that the premium quotes did not include brokerage or tax and that an amount for both would need to be added. Mr. Holden suggested a brokerage of 10% of the premium to be split between HRG and Howden. Shortly thereafter, HRG and Howden agreed that the surcharge for brokerage would be 12%, split as follows: 4% for HRG, 4% for Howden and 4% for Mr. Retana, the local contact in Costa Rica.

36. On April 2, 2009, INS appointed HRG and Howden as the brokers for placement, and it instructed HRG and Howden to proceed with the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program in accordance with the terms of the HRG/Howden Bid. (Copies of the April 2, 2009 letter of appointment, along with a certified English translation, are attached hereto as Exhibits H and I, respectively.) Although the Invitation to Bid contemplates that a successful bid would be converted into a contract document, no additional contract documentation was completed. Thus, the material terms and conditions of the agreement relating to the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program by HRG and Howden are found in the Invitation to Bid and the HRG/Howden Bid.

37. In the alternative and in the event there was no written or implied contractual relationship among the parties, HRG and Howden proceeded to provide broking services to INS in connection with the 2009 Reinsurance Program beginning on or around April 2, 2009 and received compensation for their services.

38. On April 2, 2009, INS also informed HRG and Howden that it wished to pursue Option 2.b for the 2009 Reinsurance Program; however, HRG and Howden's premium quote of $13,768,639 was reduced to $13,080,207.03 because INS decided to retain 5% of the risk.

39. On or about April 23, 2009, the Defendants confirmed that the 2009 Reinsurance Program already had been placed. HRG informed INS in a Debit Note dated May 14, 2009 that the total net premium for the Program was $12,443,734.56 (i.e., $13,080,207.03 minus $636,472.47 for applicable Costa Rican taxes), due in two installments: 60% on June 1, 2009 and 40% on July 1, 2009. (A copy of the May 14, 2009 Debit Note is attached hereto as Exhibit J.) The due date for the second installment of premium was later changed to August 1, 2009.

40. The figures in the May 14, 2009 Debit Note were supported by one-page summary charts and a spreadsheet that HRG provided to INS, around the same time, purporting to show the premium and tax for the Program by layer (but not broken down by reinsurer). The spreadsheet that HRG provided to INS was an altered version of a spreadsheet that Howden had provided days earlier to HRG showing that the actual premium was substantially lower. HRG never informed INS that such a spreadsheet existed or that it had increased the premium in the altered spreadsheet (and in the one-page summary charts that were based on the altered spreadsheet). Howden never informed INS that the actual premium was lower, even though it knew or should have known as of mid-May 2009 that HRG was going to charge INS an amount in excess of such premium (on behalf of both brokers) and also subsequently learned, in June 2009, the exact amount of premium that HRG had set forth in the May 14, 2009 Debit Note.

41. The clear purpose of the May 14, 2009 Debit Note and the other documentation was to mislead INS intentionally regarding the amount of premium and deliberately conceal the fact that INS was being overcharged. At a minimum, the Defendants were negligent in failing to disclose the correct information to INS.

42. Based on the information in the May 14, 2009 Debit Note, INS paid the first installment of net premium, $7,466,240.74 (i.e., 60% of $12,443,734.56), on or about May 28, 2009. (A copy of the transfer advice is attached hereto as Exhibit K.)

43. The total net "premium" figure of $12,443,734.56 in the May 14, 2009 Debit Note was false and misleading because it included an undisclosed commission of over $1.13 million. In a Debit Note from Howden to HRG dated May 12, 2009 (a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit L), Howden had informed HRG earlier that the total net premium was $11,312,600, which is $1,131,134.56 less than what HRG reported to INS as the total net "premium" in the May 14, 2009 Debit Note.<sup>5/</sup> INS was not provided with a copy of the May 12, 2009 Debit Note from Howden to HRG until after this action was commenced. An internal HRG e-mail, dated May 28, 2009, confirms that HRG — without INS's knowledge and approval — intended to use the $1,131,134.56 difference as unauthorized commission for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. (A copy of the May 28, 2009 e-mail is attached hereto as Exhibit M.) As alleged above, HRG had also agreed with Howden to split the commission of $1.13 million equally among HRG, Howden and Mr. Retana.

44. INS was wholly unaware at the time that the true premium for the Program was far less than the $12,443,734.56 set forth in the May 14, 2009 Debit Note and that a commission of more than $1.13 million, which HRG described as "premium" in its communications with INS, had been added on top of the actual premium. In fact, the Defendants deliberately mischaracterized the grossed-up amount as premium in order to mislead INS and induce it to overpay for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Alternatively, the Defendants were negligent in failing to provide INS with accurate information regarding the amounts charged.

45. Out of the $7,466,240.74 that it had received from INS, HRG remitted $6,787,560 to Howden on or about June 1, 2009. (A copy of the transfer information is attached hereto as Exhibit N.) HRG retained the difference of $678,680.74 as commission and further intended to take the balance of the purported commission when INS paid the second installment of premium. HRG also included Howden's 4% portion of the commission (per the brokers' secret agreement from early April 2009) in the premium that it transmitted to Howden on or about June 1, 2009 following INS's payment of the first installment.

46. Howden proposed the grossing up described above or at least should have known about it in advance of INS's first premium payment, assisted HRG in charging more premium than was in fact due (according to the May 12, 2009 Debit Note from Howden) and/or itself participated in, or benefitted from, the wrongful grossing up.

F. INS's Discovery of Overcharging and Replacement of HRG and Howden as Brokers for the 2009 Reinsurance Program

47. As a result of their involvement in the Prior Reinsurance Program, the Defendants were aware of the requirement to provide full documentation for reinsurance placed on INS's behalf. The Invitation to Bid similarly states that the selected broker(s) would be required to provide the slips for the 2009 Reinsurance Program (the "2009 Slips"). (Ex. D at ¶ 3.) In late March and early April 2009, INS reminded HRG that the selected broker(s) must produce the 2009 Slips and, among other things, provide information relating to the premium and brokerage for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. From early April through mid-June 2009, INS also requested on numerous occasions that HRG and Howden produce the 2009 Slips. Because there were no (or very few) contract wordings executed, the 2009 Slips constitute the operative contracts between INS and all (or most of) the reinsurers participating in the 2009 Reinsurance Program with regard to the premium for the Program and other key terms.<sup>67</sup>

48. Despite INS's frequent requests, HRG and Howden still had not provided the 2009 Slips as of late May 2009. Given that the June 1, 2009 deadline for the first installment of premium was rapidly approaching, INS was forced to pay the installment even though it did not yet have the requested documents and information relating to the 2009 Reinsurance Program. If the Defendants had produced the 2009 Slips and other requested information before June 1, 2009, INS would have discovered the overcharging and could have avoided some or all of its damages. The Defendants intentionally withheld the 2009 Slips to conceal their wrongdoing and

<sup>67</sup> To the extent, however, that the 2009 Slips allow for brokerage in excess of the fixed amount agreed among the parties, HRG and/or Howden's retention of more than $187,530 in brokerage, based on such provisions in the 2009 Slips, was not authorized by INS and violated the terms of the Invitation to Bid and Bid, which are controlling with respect to the amount of brokerage.

induce INS to make the premium payments. Alternatively, the Defendants' failure to produce the 2009 Slips was negligent or otherwise violated the duties they owed INS.

49. In or about mid-June 2009, INS became so frustrated with Defendants' foot-dragging regarding the production of the 2009 Slips that it obtained a sampling of the slips directly from the reinsurers. The sample slips, along with other documents, suggested that the reinsurance premium reflected in the May 14, 2009 Debit Note from HRG to INS and elsewhere was far higher than it should have been, which led INS to suspect that it had been overcharged and/or that the brokers had engaged in grossing up.

50. Shortly thereafter, on or about June 22, 2009, a representative of INS, José Ángel Villalobos, met with a Howden representative, Mr. Holden, in London to discuss the production of the 2009 Slips and the apparent overcharging, including grossing up of premium. At that meeting, Mr. Villalobos provided Mr. Holden with written information showing the amount of "premium" ($12,443,734.56) that, according to the May 14, 2009 Debit Note, was due from INS for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. In a telephone conversation with Mr. Villalobos the next day, Mr. Holden stated that Howden would not produce the 2009 Slips without HRG's authorization. Around the same time, Howden offered to have the Lloyd's of London compliance office (which oversees Howden as a Lloyd's broker) conduct an audit of Howden's files, asserting that such an audit would prove that no grossing up had occurred. Howden's statements to Lloyd's regarding the grossing up were factually incorrect and misleading.

51. On June 23, 2009, INS notified HRG that it was terminating the broking relationship with HRG and Howden.

52. On June 24, 2009, INS appointed Willis as the replacement broker for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Willis agreed that, in providing broking services to INS, it would charge the same amount ($195,000) that it had bid in the "beauty contest." On June 24, 2009, INS and Willis also met with Howden to request copies of the 2009 Slips, as well as the accompanying accounting records. In late June 2009 and continuing into July 2009, Howden took the position that it would not produce any the information absent authorization from HRG; HRG, meanwhile, refused to provide such authorization.

53. On July 9, 2009, Philip Bond of Howden wrote to INS and proposed that Howden handle the payment of the second premium installment to reinsurers. Among other things, Mr. Bond expressly sought to assure INS that no grossing up had occurred in connection with the 2009 Reinsurance Program. (A copy of the July 9, 2009 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit O.) Mr. Bond's written statements to INS regarding the grossing up were factually incorrect and misleading, and were intentionally designed to induce INS to pay the second installment of premium (from which Howden would receive its 4% commission). In the alternative, Mr. Bond was negligent because he should have known that his statements were false.

54. After HRG and Howden continued to refuse to provide the 2009 Slips and other requested information, INS threatened legal action against HRG and Howden to force the release of the records. By letter dated July 24, 2009 (the "July 24 Letter"), Blake informed counsel for INS that Defendants finally would be producing the 2009 Slips, which INS received on July 28, 2009. (A copy of the July 24 Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit P.)

55. In the July 24 Letter, Blake specifically noted that HRG "did, in fact, in conjunction with Howden Insurance Brokers Of London, Ltd. [sic], place the reinsurance on behalf of INS." Blake's express acknowledgement that HRG and Howden were co-brokers is also supported by other contemporaneous documents from HRG's and Howden's files.

56. The complete set of 2009 Slips — as well as other documents — revealed that HRG and Howden had indeed overcharged INS in respect of premium and brokerage. The documents further demonstrated that HRG and Howden overcharged INS with regard to taxes for the 2009 Reinsurance Program by (a) deducting 6% for taxes for certain of the reinsurers instead of the 5.5% required by Costa Rican law; (b) basing the tax deductions on a wrongfully inflated "premium" figure; and (c) deducting an amount for taxes from the reinsurance premium paid by INS, even though INS had already paid such taxes. In all, Defendants overcharged INS at least approximately $2.5 million in premium, brokerage and taxes. In addition to the overcharged amounts (and the interest thereon), INS suffered consequential damages as a result of HRG and Howden's breach of contract. To date, INS's total compensatory damages are estimated to be in excess of $3 million (with interest continuing to accrue).<sup>77</sup>

57. In the alternative, even if there was no contract among the parties regarding the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program, INS suffered separate tort damages arising out of the parties' broking relationship as a direct and proximate result of HRG and Howden's actions.

58. In or around June 2009, INS put both HRG and Howden on notice regarding the overpayments described above. Defendants, however, have wrongfully refused to return the overcharged funds to INS.

<sup>77</sup> The foregoing figures are based on currently available information, and INS fully reserves its right to amend or supplement them.

Count I
Breach of Express Contract
(As against HRG and Howden)

59. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-7, 14-16, 24-36, 38-39, 42-43, 45, 49, 51-52, 54-56 and 58 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

60. The Invitation to Bid and the HRG/Howden Bid constitute an enforceable contract among INS, HRG and Howden with regard to the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program, including the amount of brokerage for the Program and the requirement that HRG and Howden obtain, and produce to INS, the slips setting forth the reinsurance premium. HRG signed and submitted the HRG/Howden Bid on behalf of both HRG and Howden, thereby accepting the terms of the Invitation to Bid. HRG thereafter provided broking services to INS by placing the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Howden demonstrated its acceptance of the terms of the Invitation to Bid by participating in, and approving of, the submission of the HRG/Howden Bid and thereafter acting as co-broker for INS with respect to the Program. In addition, HRG and Howden had copies of some or all of the 2009 Slips, which set forth the details of the premium to be paid in connection with the 2009 Reinsurance Program.

61. HRG and Howden breached the contract by, among other things: (1) charging INS brokerage fees well in excess of the agreed-upon fixed amount of $187,530; and (2) charging INS more premium than was actually due for the 2009 Reinsurance Program, as shown on the 2009 Slips.

62. As a result of HRG's and Howden's breach of contract, INS suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against HRG and Howden for breach of an express contract and seeks damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Count II
Breach of Implied Contract
(As against HRG and Howden)

63. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-7, 14-16, 24-36, 38-39, 42-43, 45, 49, 51-52, 54-56 and 58 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

64. Even if no express contract was formed among INS, HRG and Howden, a contract among the parties should be implied by law in order to prevent unjust enrichment.

65. INS conferred a benefit upon HRG and Howden in the form of premium payments in connection with the 2009 Reinsurance Program, from which a fixed brokerage fee was to be deducted. However, HRG and Howden overcharged INS in the manner alleged above. Under the circumstances, it would be inequitable for HRG and Howden to retain the overpayments made by INS.

66. Accordingly, HRG and Howden have breached the implied contract among the parties and, as a result, INS has suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against HRG and Howden for breach of an implied contract and seeks damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Count III
Negligence (Broker Malpractice)
(As against HRG and Howden)

67. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-6, 8, 14-17, 19-23, 33-35, 37-54 and 56-57 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

68. At all relevant times, HRG was a broker for the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Therefore, HRG was INS's agent and owed INS a duty to act as a reinsurance broker of reasonable skill and diligence would act under the circumstances.

69. Howden owed the same duty to INS as a sub-broker for HRG (assuming, in the alternative, that Howden was not a co-broker with HRG).

70. HRG's and Howden's duties included, among other things, the duty to procure reinsurance for INS in accordance with INS's requirements (which included obtaining reinsurance at the best price available), the duty to charge only the amount of premium set forth in the 2009 Slips, the duty to charge a reasonable brokerage fee, under the circumstances, for their services, and the duty to provide the information relating to the 2009 Reinsurance Program that was requested by INS.

71. HRG and Howden breached the duties they owed INS by failing to act as a reinsurance broker of reasonable skill and diligence would act under the circumstances in placing the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Those breaches of duty included, without limitation: (a) failing to obtain the reinsurance at the best price available and instead charging more premium than was set forth in the 2009 Slips; (b) charging more brokerage than was reasonable under the circumstances; (c) refusing to provide timely information and documentation to INS concerning the reinsurance and related matters and failing to disclose the overcharging, including the fact that the premium had been grossed up; (d) wrongfully refusing to return the overcharged amounts to INS upon request; and (e) otherwise failing to act as a reasonable broker would under the circumstances.

72. As a proximate result of such breaches, INS suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against HRG and Howden for negligence and seeks damages, attorneys' fees and costs and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Count IV
Breach of Fiduciary Duty
(As against HRG and Howden)

73. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-6, 8, 14-17, 19-23, 33-35, 37-54 and 56-57 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

74. At all relevant times, HRG and Howden acted as broker and sub-broker, respectively, for the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program (assuming, in the alternative, that Howden was not a co-broker with HRG). As such, they owed fiduciary duties to INS, including the duty to act in a manner consistent with the best interests of INS.

75. HRG's and Howden's duties included, among other things, the duty to procure reinsurance for INS in accordance with INS's requirements (which included obtaining reinsurance at the best price available), the duty to charge only the amount of premium set forth in the 2009 Slips, the duty to charge a reasonable brokerage fee, under the circumstances, for their services, and the duty to provide the information relating to the 2009 Reinsurance Program that was requested by INS.

76. HRG and Howden breached the duties they owed INS by failing to act in a manner consistent with the best interests of INS in placing the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Those breaches of duty included, without limitation: (a) failing to obtain the reinsurance at the best price available and instead charging more premium than was set forth in the 2009 Slips; (b) charging more brokerage than was reasonable under the circumstances; (c) refusing to provide timely information and documentation to INS concerning the reinsurance and related matters and failing to disclose the overcharging, including the fact that the premium had been grossed up; (d) wrongfully refusing to return the overcharged amounts to INS upon request; and (e) otherwise failing to act as a fiduciary in connection with 2009 , and the duty to provide information relating to the 2009 Reinsurance Program that was requested by INS.

77. As a proximate result of such breaches, INS suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against HRG and Howden for breach of fiduciary duty and seeks damages, attorneys' fees and costs and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Count V
Imposition of Constructive Trust
(As against HRG and Howden)

78. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-6, 8, 14-17, 19-23, 33-35, 37-54, 56-57 and 74 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

79. At all relevant times, HRG and Howden were in a confidential relationship with INS because, as alleged above in Paragraph 74 and elsewhere in the Complaint (in the alternative), they acted as broker and sub-broker, respectively, for the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program and owed fiduciary duties to INS.

80. HRG and Howden wrongfully retained funds belonging to INS. Specifically, HRG retained $678,680.74 in excess of the actual amount owed for the first installment of premium for the 2009 Reinsurance Program, and Howden retained at least $1,100,606.05 more in brokerage than INS agreed to pay HRG and Howden for the placement of the Program.<sup>87</sup>

81. HRG and Howden have been unjustly enriched through their retention of the funds described above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against HRG and Howden imposing a constructive trust on all funds wrongfully retained in connection with the 2009 Reinsurance Program, the exact amount of which is to be determined but is no less than $1,779,286.79.

Count VI
Aiding and Abetting Breach of Fiduciary Duty
(As against Howden)

82. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-6, 8, 14-17, 19-23, 33-35, 37-54, 56-57 and 74-76 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

83. As alleged above, HRG was a broker for the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program and, therefore, owed INS a fiduciary duty. HRG breached its fiduciary duty to INS in the manner alleged above in Count IV.

84. Even if Howden did not owe a similar fiduciary duty to INS, it provided substantial assistance and encouragement to HRG, the primary wrongdoer, with full knowledge of HRG's breach of fiduciary duty. As alleged above, Howden agreed to the overcharging and fully participated in the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Therefore, Howden knew of HRG's wrongdoing and substantially assisted HRG in its wrongdoing. Among other things, Howden provided substantial assistance to HRG: (a) by jointly placing the 2009 Reinsurance Program; (b) by facilitating the improper overcharging of premium and brokerage; (c) by wrongfully refusing to provide timely information and documentation to INS concerning the reinsurance and related matters and failing to disclose the overcharging, including the fact that the premium had been grossed up; and/or (d) by wrongfully refusing to return the overcharged amounts to INS upon request.

85. As a proximate result of Howden's aiding and abetting of HRG's breach of fiduciary duty, INS suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Howden for aiding and abetting HRG's breach of fiduciary duty and seeks damages, attorneys' fees and costs and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Count VII
Fraudulent Misrepresentation
(As against HRG and Howden)

86. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-6, 8, 14-23, 33-35, 37-54 and 56-57 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

87. The Defendants intentionally and knowingly made several false statements to INS regarding the amount of premium and taxes for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Specifically, the Defendants (a) informed INS in May 2009 that it owed $12,443,734.56 as reinsurance premium, even though they knew that the amount charged as "premium" included undisclosed and unapproved commission for the brokers that had been wrongfully added to the maximum premium under the 2009 Slips; (b) mischaracterized the surcharged commission as "premium"; (c) informed INS in May 2009 that it owed $636,472.47 for taxes, which was falsely based on a grossed-up premium figure rather than the actual amount of premium; (d) told INS in May 2009 to add $636,472.47 to the net premium for Costa Rican taxes, even though an amount for taxes was also deducted from the premium that INS paid to the Defendants; and (e) thereafter denied that any grossing up had occurred, even though they were aware of the surcharge in the premium for commission and the overpayment of taxes based on the grossed-up amount. The foregoing statements all related to material facts regarding the 2009 Reinsurance Program.

88. The Defendants made the above representations with the intent to induce INS to pay a grossed-up amount of reinsurance premium, from which the Defendants took their commission. Howden also wrongfully retained a portion of the overpayment of taxes by INS.

89. INS relied on the above representations by the Defendants and would not have made the premium and tax payments but for those representations.

90. As a proximate result of INS's reliance on the Defendants' misrepresentations, INS suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against HRG and Howden for fraudulent misrepresentation and seeks damages, attorneys' fees and costs and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Count VIII
Negligent Misrepresentation
(As against HRG and Howden)

91. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-6, 8, 14-23, 33-35, 37-54 and 56-57 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

92. The Defendants made several false statements to INS regarding the amount of premium and taxes for the 2009 Reinsurance Program. Specifically, the Defendants (a) informed INS in May 2009 that it owed $12,443,734.56 as reinsurance premium, even though they should have known that the amount charged as "premium" included undisclosed and unapproved commission for the brokers that had been wrongfully added to the maximum premium under the 2009 Slips; (b) mischaracterized the surcharged commission as "premium"; (c) informed INS in May 2009 that it owed $636,472.47 for taxes, which was falsely based on a grossed-up premium figure rather than the actual amount of premium; (d) told INS in May 2009 to add $636,472.47 to the net premium for Costa Rican taxes, even though an amount for taxes was also deducted from the premium that INS paid to the Defendants; and (e) thereafter denied that any grossing up had occurred, even though they should have been aware of the surcharge in the premium for commission and the overpayment of taxes based on the grossed-up amount. The foregoing statements all related to material facts regarding the 2009 Reinsurance Program.

93. The Defendants were negligent in making the above representations because they should have known that such representations were false.

94. The Defendants made the above representations with the intent to induce INS to pay a grossed-up amount of reinsurance premium, from which the Defendants took their commission. Howden also wrongfully retained a portion of the overpayment of taxes by INS

95. INS justifiably relied on the above representations by the Defendants and would not have made the premium and tax payments but for those representations.

96. As a proximate result of INS's reliance on the Defendants' misrepresentations, INS suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against HRG and Howden for negligent misrepresentation and seeks damages, attorneys' fees and costs and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Count IX
Constructive Fraud
(As against HRG and Howden)

97. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1-2, 4-6, 8, 14-23, 33-35, 37-54, 56-57 and 74 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

98. As alleged above, INS and the Defendants were in a fiduciary relationship because HRG and Howden acted as brokers for the placement of the 2009 Reinsurance Program.

99. The Defendants abused that relationship because they (a) informed INS in May 2009 that it owed $12,443,734.56 as reinsurance premium, even though the amount charged as "premium" included undisclosed and unapproved commission for the brokers that had been wrongfully added to the maximum premium under the 2009 Slips; (b) mischaracterized the surcharged commission as "premium"; (c) informed INS in May 2009 that it owed $636,472.47 for taxes, which was based on a grossed-up premium figure rather than the actual amount of premium; (d) told INS in May 2009 to add $636,472.47 to the net premium for Costa Rican taxes, even though an amount for taxes was also deducted from the premium that INS paid to the Defendants; and (e) denied that any grossing up had occurred, even though they had included a surcharge in the premium for commission and the overpayment of taxes was based on the grossed-up amount.

100. As a proximate result of the Defendants' abuse of the fiduciary relationship, INS suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Howden for constructive fraud and seeks damages, attorneys' fees and costs and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury on all issues so triable herein.

CERTIFICATION

We hereby certify that the matter in controversy is not the subject of any other action pending in any Court or of a pending arbitration proceeding, nor is any such action or proceeding presently contemplated.

(a) ESTRATEGIA DE COLOCACIÓN DEL RIESGO I.C.E.:

1.- PRODUCIR INFORMACION TECNICA ACTUALIZADA CON EL FIN DE ESTAR EN LAS MEJOR POSICION DE NEGOCIACION CON LSO REASEGURADORES.

El último reporte técnico que se les suministro a los Reaseguradores fue en Marzo 2008 elaborado por Néstor Mora y Asociados. Se debe considerar que en vista de la actividad de siniestros presentada durante el presente periodo de la póliza, este reporte no cuenta con información actualizada.

Es nuestra consideración que es importante producir información actualizada con respecto a la calidad del riesgo posterior a los reclamos importantes. Sin esta información, los reaseguradores evitaran el riesgo o se enfocaran de forma muy importante en la sinistralidad de la cuenta.

Como Es de su conocimiento, nosotros hemos organizado una Inspección de riesgo para esta semana aprobada por reaseguradores actuales con el propósito principal ayudar al I.N.S. obtener las mejores condiciones de los mercados de reaseguro globales.

2.- MERCADEO DEL PROGRAMA GRUPO I.C.E.

Consideramos que nuestra estrategia de mercadeo está compuesta de tres etapas:

2.1.- Negociación de la renovación con los mismos reaseguradores bajo la estructura actual.

La estructura actual ha comprobado ser la vía más efectiva de asegurar respaldo de la mejor calidad. Nuestra experiencia nos ha demostrado que las condiciones actuales de la póliza del Grupo I.C.E., particularmente los deducibles de 10 días para Interrupción de Negocio y USD 100,000 para Gastos Extraordinarios, son raramente obtenidas por riesgos de Generación de Poder de similar tamaño y dimensión en los mercados mundiales.

Por esta razón, la estructura actual pudiera ser la mejor manera de continuar reasegurando este riesgo.

2.2.- Considerando el panel de reaseguradores actuales trataríamos de desarrollar participaciones más importantes de los reaseguradores especializados, tales como: Munich Re, Infrassure, Paris Re y SCOR.

Efectivamente consideraremos la simplificación la estructura de la colocación del reaseguro con un panel de reaseguradores líderes con participaciones más significativas en la sección primaria del riesgo.

2.3.- Contactaremos nuevamente a los reaseguradores que han declinado participar en la cuenta anteriormente con información actualizada con el propósito de determinar su tarifa y condiciones para soportar el riesgo. De acuerdo con nuestra experiencia de las negociaciones con estos reaseguradores de los años pasados, consideramos que con algunas alteraciones estaríamos en posición de atraer su soporte para la renovación.

Hemos estudiado detalladamente las condiciones y particularmente las diferentes alternativas de deducible requeridas. En nuestra opinión, los reaseguradores actuales consideran reducciones importantes para las opciones de deducibles más altos que los actuales. Sin embargo, nosotros consideramos que las opciones requeridas no serán suficientes para atraer nuevas capacidades al riesgo. Reaseguradores tales como, Swiss Re, Arch, Allianz y otros profesionales que actualmente no participan requerirían deducibles más elevados para las secciones de Interrupción de Negocio y Gastos Extraordinarios.

3.- PRORROGA DE LA VIGENCIA ACTUAL DE LA POLIZA.

Bajo al condición de ser el corredor nombrado procederíamos a negociar una prorroga de vigencia por un período corto con el fin de permitir al INS y los Ingenieros del ICE la oportunidad de reunirse con los mercados claves y presentarles información técnica de primera calidad. La presentación proveerá a los reaseguradores información directa de los Ingenieros del ICE y los resultados de los reportes de Inspección actualmente siendo efectuados por el Inspector de Riesgos.

En nuestra experiencia este tipo de estrategia siempre conlleva la obtención los términos y condiciones más favorables para el Asegurado y el Reasegurado.

CONDICIONES IMPERANTES EN EL MERCADO DE SEGUROS GLOBAL, CONDICIONES IMPORTANTES EN MERCADOS ESPECÍFICOS Y LA CAPACIDAD DE COLOCACIÓN DE LOS MERCADOS PARA EL LIMITE DEL PROGRAMA DE RIESGO DEL I.C.E.

El mercado de Seguros Global ha sido afectado por factores económicos externos, tales como mercados de capitales, también como factores internos tales como nivel de competencia y reclamos de importancia.

Factores externos: todos estamos en conocimiento de la crisis económica mundial actual, la cual está afectado particularmente el sistema bancario y financiero. Por los momentos ha tenido dos efectos muy notables en el sector de seguros:

a) "ratings" de las Compañías de Seguros. Ha habido un gran número de asuntos de alto nivel involucrando compañías como AIG, Swiss Re y XL Re.

Por los momentos estos grupos permanecen con solidez financiera pero estas circunstancias nos han hecho tomar en consideración que debemos estar en constante revisión de los "securities" que recomendamos a nuestros clientes.

b) Tasas de interés, actualmente están a los niveles muy bajos en EEUU y Europa. Esto significa que los reaseguradores se enfocarán más en el resultado puro técnico de suscripción, y a mucho menos escala en los resultados producidos por los productos financieros.

Factores Internos: Con la relación al programa del Grupo I.C.E. se pueden dividir los mercados en dos categorías:

- a) Reaseguradores Globales Internacionales, tales como: Scor, Liberty International Underwriters, Paris Re, ACE, Hannover Re, Munich Re, Zurich,
- b) Reaseguradores basados en Londres: Estos son mercados son típicamente suscriptores del Lloyd's de Londres y mercados privados.

Página 11 de 11

Reaseguradores en ambas secciones han sufrido pérdidas severas en los años 2007 y 2008 derivados de clientes del sector de Energía. La pérdida reciente más notable sucedió en Italia en 2008 proveniente de la compañía de generación de poder ENEL SpA la cual tiene una reserva actual en el rango de USD 350,000,000

En adición a los siniestros individuales de gran cuantía como este, ha habido un gran número de casos de Rotura de Maquinarias y los cuales han provocado que sea más difícil colocar este tipo de coberturas para turbinas de gas.

La temporada de renovación correspondiente a Enero 2009 trajo más noticias negativas, reflejadas en un incremento del costo de las coberturas de Exceso de Pérdida Catastróficas de aproximadamente 20% en promedio.

En resumen, las condiciones de negociación de coberturas de reaseguro facultativo han sido afectadas por condiciones económicas adversas, resultados técnicos de suscripción poco rentables y un número incrementado de catástrofes naturales.

Estos factores han llevado a un endurecimiento del mercado, los reaseguradores buscan ahora aumentos de tarifa automáticos en las renovaciones, a pesar que sean cuentas o clientes que no han presentado reclamos.

A pesar de lo anterior expuesto, estamos complacidos de informar que a nuestra consideración todavía hay suficiente capacidad para la colocación de riesgos con límites asegurados de USD 300,000,000

a) I.C.E. RISK PLACEMENT STRATEGY

I. PRODUCTION OF UPDATED TECHNICAL INFORMATION WITH A VIEW TO PLACING OURSELVES IN THE BEST NEGOTIATING POSITION WITH LSO REINSURERS

The most recent technical report provided to the reinsurers was dated March 2008. It was drawn up by Nestor Mora and Partners. Please note that the information in this report is not fully up to date given the claim activity during the current policy period.

We believe it is important to present updated information in relation to the nature of the risk following any significant claims. Without this information, the reinsurers will avoid the risk or concentrate above all on the losses for the account.

As you know, we have organized a risk inspection for this week, with the approval of the existing reinsurers, for the primary purpose of assisting the I.N.S. in obtaining the best conditions available on the global reinsurance markets.

2. MARKETING THE ICE GROUP PROGRAM

We believe that our marketing strategy should consist of three stages:

2.1 Negotiation of the renewal with the same reinsurers under the existing structure

The existing structure has proven to be the most effective way to secure support of the best quality. Our experience has demonstrated that the existing I.C.E. Group policy conditions, especially those regarding the 10 day deductibles for Business Interruption and 100,000 US dollars for Extraordinary Costs, are rarely obtained for power generation risks of a similar nature and size on the world market.

For this reason, the existing structure may be the best way to continue to reinsurance this risk.

2.2 Taking into account the existing panel of reinsurers, we will attempt to obtain greater participation on the part of the specialist reinsurers, such as: Munich Re, Infrassure, Paris Re and SCOR.

We believe in fact that we have to consider the possibility of simplifying the reinsurance placement structure with a panel of leading reinsurers with significant involvement in the primary risk section.

2.3 We will once again contact the reinsurers who have previously declined to take part in the account to provide them with updated information. This will enable them to determine their rate and the conditions that they wish to apply to support the risk. On the basis of our previous experience negotiating with these reinsurers, we believe that with some changes we will be in a position to attract their interest in the renewal.

We have conducted an in-depth assessment of the conditions, with particular reference to the various deductible alternatives required. In our opinion, the existing reinsurers will consider significant reductions for deductible options which are greater than those currently in place. However, we believe that the options required will not be sufficient to attract new capacities to the risk. Such reinsurers as Swiss Re, Arch, Allianz and other specialists currently not involved will require higher deductibles for Business Interruption and Extraordinary Costs.

3. EXTENSION OF THE CURRENT COVERAGE PERIOD OF THE POLICY

Provided we are the designated broker, we will negotiate an extension of the coverage for a short period, with a view to enabling the INS and the ICE engineers to meet with the key markets and present them with top quality technical information. This presentation will provide the reinsurers with direct information from the ICE engineers and the results of the inspection reports currently being conducted by the Risk Inspector.

In our experience, this type of strategy always has the effect of achieving the most favorable terms and conditions for both the insured and the reinsured.

b) SCHEDULE FOR MARKETING THE I.C.E. PROGRAM TO THE REINSURERS

Hemispheric Reinsurance Group L.L.C. agrees to complete the 100% placement of the reinsurance program by 19th March 2009.

In the event of force majeure or circumstances beyond our control or which could lead to possible delays in the placement process, we will propose a brief extension to the existing policy, which we believe we will be able to negotiate with the existing reinsurers.

Preparation of the Underwriting and Engineering Information and the Renewal Documents:

The Documents and Engineering Reports are currently being prepared, and we expect they will be finished prior to our designation as brokers for the account.

Quotation Process: 7 working days

This period will include face to face negotiations with the reinsurers, mainly in the United States, London and Europe.

At the end of this period we will present I.N.S. with a list of questions from the reinsurers and inform them of the initial price indications of the reinsurers.

At this point, and if it should be necessary, we will be in a position to recommend going ahead with a brief extension of the existing policy to enable us to complete the negotiations.

Placement: 10 working days.

After the I.N.S. has replied to the questions and satisfied the requests for information from the reinsurers, we will be in a position to complete the placement in full.

Drafting and Issue of the Documentation: 21 working days.

c) CAPACITY AT GLOBAL LEVEL AND EXPERIENCE IN THE CENTRAL AMERICAN REGION AND COSTA RICA

Hemispheric Reinsurance Group L.L.C. along with Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd has been involved in the placement of various types of medium to large scale risks (involving sums insured of several billion US dollars), including, among others, property risks of energy, telecommunications and petrochemical companies and other commercial and industrial risks throughout the world, including South and Central America, the Caribbean, the Near and Far East, Africa and Europe.

More specifically in the Central American region, apart from Costa Rica, currently we broker the placement of policies for various risks in Mexico, Nicaragua, Honduras, Guatemala, El Salvador and Panama.

d) POWER GENERATION CAPACITIES

With specific regard to energy and similar risks in Central America, we are currently involved in the placement of the following policies:

- The I.C.E. Group in Costa Rica
- EMERSA, Honduras
- EMCE, Honduras
- COPESA, Panama

In the recent past, we have handled and taken part in public and private bidding processes with the following insurance companies (among others):

- INDE, Guatemala
- GEOSA, Nicaragua
- Tipitapa, Nicaragua

e) ENGINEERING AND RISK ADMINISTRATION SERVICES

We have special agreements with a number of internationally renowned independent specialist companies in Engineering and Risk Administration Services, including Nestor Mora y Asociados of Colombia and C.I. (Risk Management Services) Limited of the UK.

These companies have had solid relationships with the reinsurers for many years. Their reports are independent, objective professional opinions which are respected by the reinsurers.

In our opinion, the reports drawn up by independent companies are received in a more positive light than those issued by the reinsurance brokers themselves.

The services which we normally recommend to our clients can be summed up as follows:

- Evaluation and calculation of risk exposure.
- Analysis of liability, damage to property, interruption of business and potential loss of earnings.
- Drafting and implementation of risk management programs.
- Loss scenario studies and the establishment of the potential Probable Maximum Loss (PML).
- Training programs for the insured and reinsured organizations.

f) CLAIMS SERVICE AND EXPERIENCE IN HANDLING LARGE, COMPLEX CLAIMS

We have a specialist team which is specifically dedicated to the handling of claims of all kinds.

Our claims handling services form an integral part of our organization. This means that our clients can rely on personalized levels of service in the recovery of their claims.

Our experienced team has been involved in the handling and payment of large scale, complex claims, including a large number of individual incidents occurring in Power Generation Plants, and catastrophic risks such as major Earthquakes and Hurricanes.

Our Claims team handles millions of US dollars each year, and has built up a reputation for obtaining the most favorable levels of payment for our clients.

g) MARKET SECURITY CONTROL/SERVICES

We have a quality control Division which is specialized in and dedicated to the day to day monitoring of the rating trends for the reinsurance companies which we use in our placements.

It is our belief and policy that the "security" and validity of the reinsurance markets we recommend to our clients is of primary importance.

Our policy is to provide our clients with the "ratings" for each of the reinsurers that are part of the program, and we keep these updated at all times in those cases in which any major change might have an impact on the situation.

h) CURRICULA OF THE GROUP MEMBERS ASSIGNED TO THE PLACEMENT

The persons assigned to the placement of the account are as follows:

J) ADDITIONAL SERVICES/CAPACITY

As mentioned above, we are able to offer Risk Administration Seminars in Costa Rica, Miami and/or London.

The seminars will be presented by Hemispheric Reinsurance Group L.L.C., with the participation of I.N.S., I.C.E. Group and leading reinsurers, loss adjusters and risk engineers, as well as the brokers responsible for the placement and claims handling operations.

In the 2008 and 2009 policy years, we produced two independent engineering reports and organized three seminars, and our intention is to continue to offer such services.

PREVAILING CONDITIONS IN THE GLOBAL INSURANCE MARKET. SIGNIFICANT CONDITIONS IN SPECIFIC MARKETS AND THE LSO MARKET PLACEMENT CAPACITY FOR THE I.C.E. RISK PROGRAM

The Global Insurance market has been affected by external economic factors, such as the property markets, as well as such internal factors as the level of competition and significant claims.

External factors: we are all aware of the current situation of international economic crisis, which has affected the banking and financial system in particular. To date, this has had very significant effects in the insurance sector:

- a) Insurance Company "ratings." A large number of high profile situations have affected such companies as AIG, Swiss Re and XL Re.

For the moment, these groups continue to be financially solid, but these circumstances have led us to take into consideration that it is necessary to review the "securities" which we recommend to our clients on a constant basis.

- b) Interest rates. These are currently very low in the United States and Europe. This means that the reinsurers concentrate much more on the pure technical result of underwriting, and place much less emphasis on the results that can be obtained from financial products.

Internal factors: for the purposes of the ICE Group program, we can divide the markets into two categories:

- a) Global International Reinsurers, including: Scor, Liberty International Underwriters, Paris Re, ACE, Hannover Re, Munich Re, Zurich.
- b) Reinsurers based in London: these are typically Lloyd's of London underwriters and private markets.

Reinsurers in both of these categories suffered severe losses in 2007 and 2008, deriving from clients in the energy sector. The most significant recent loss took place in Italy in 2008, and involved the power generation company ENEL SpA, which currently has a reserve in the region of USD 350,000,000.

In addition to such large scale individual losses as this one, there have also been many cases of Machinery Breakdown, which have made it more difficult to place coverage of this kind for gas turbines.

The January 2009 renewal season has been affected by even more bad news, which has been reflected by an increase in the cost of excess catastrophic loss coverage in the region of 20% on average.

To sum up, the negotiating conditions for facultative reinsurance cover have been affected by adverse economic conditions, unprofitable technical underwriting results and a greater number of natural catastrophes.

These factors have led to tougher market conditions. The reinsurers are now seeking larger rate increases upon renewal, even in the case of accounts and clients that have not presented claims.

In spite of the above, we are pleased to announce that we continue to have sufficient capacity to place risks with limits of insurance of USD 300,000,000.

SECURITY DETAILS

LMA3333 : (RE)INSURERS LIABILITY CLAUSE
21 June 2007

(Re)insurer's liability several not joint

The liability of a (re)insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other (re)insurers party to this contract. A (re)insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. A (re)insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other (re)insurer. Nor is a (re)insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other (re)insurer that may underwrite this contract.

The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by a (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown next to its stamp. This is subject always to the provision concerning "signing" below.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is a (re)insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other (re)insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Proportion of liability

Unless there is "signing" (see below), the proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by each (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown next to its stamp and is referred to as its "written line".

Where this contract permits, written lines, or certain written lines, may be adjusted ("signed"). In that case a schedule is to be appended to this contract to show the definitive proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by each (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). A definitive proportion (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of a Lloyd's syndicate taken together) is referred to as a "signed line". The signed lines shown in the schedule will prevail over the written lines unless a proven error in calculation has occurred.

Although reference is made at various points in this clause to "this contract" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

A handwritten signature consisting of stylized, flowing letters, likely belonging to a company representative.

This Policy does not insure any loss, damage, claim, cost, expense or other sum directly or indirectly arising out of or relating to:

mold, mildew, fungus, spores or other microorganism of any type, nature, or description, including but not limited to any substance whose presence poses an actual or potential threat to human health.

This Exclusion applies regardless whether there is (i) any physical loss or damage to insured property; (ii) any insured peril or cause, whether or not contributing concurrently or in any sequence; (iii) any loss of use, occupancy, or functionality; or (iv) any action required, including but not limited to repair, replacement, removal, cleanup, abatement, disposal, relocation, or steps taken to address medical or legal concerns.

This Exclusion replaces and supersedes any provision in the Policy that provides insurance, in whole or in part, for these matters.

GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR FACULTATIVE BUSINESS

These General Conditions constitute, together with the Facultative Reinsurance Acceptance Slip, the Agreement of Facultative Reinsurance (hereinafter referred to as "the Agreement"), under which the Reinsurer, in consideration of the payment of the reinsurance premium and subject to the terms, conditions and limits stated herein, shall indemnify the Company with respect to its insurance liability for payments made by the Company on the policy reinsured hereunder. In no event shall anyone other than the Reinsurer or its representative, the Company, or the receiver, liquidator or statutory successor of any of them, have any rights under this Agreement.

A. REINSURER'S OBLIGATION. The Reinsurer's obligation to indemnify the Company shall follow the terms and conditions of this Agreement and of the Company's policy furnished to the Reinsurer at the effective date of this Agreement, unless otherwise specifically provided herein by endorsement made a part of this Agreement. Any change in the terms and/or conditions of the policy reinsured hereunder, subsequent to the effective date of the Agreement, shall not increase or extend the Reinsurer's liability hereunder unless such change is made a part of this Agreement by endorsement issued by the Reinsurer.

B. RETENTION OF THE COMPANY. This Agreement is issued in reliance of the Company's not reducing its net retention either though reinsurance or otherwise without notice to the Reinsurer (except for the retention that the Company may reinsurance by means of non-specific excess of loss catastrophe reinsurance applying to more than one of the Company's policies in a single event). If it has not been duly notified, the Reinsurer shall in no event be liable for a larger proportion of any loss otherwise fully collectible hereunder than the percentage that the actual amount of the Company retention at the time of loss bears to the retention originally stipulated. There shall be no return of premium to the Company on account of any such reduction in the Reinsurer's liability for loss.

C. COMPANY INFORMATION AND RIGHT OF INSPECTION. The Company shall furnish the Reinsurer with a copy of the policy reinsured hereunder and all endorsements thereto which in any manner affect this Agreement. The Company shall make available for inspection, and place at the Reinsurer's disposal within a reasonable time, at the Company's offices during business hours, any of its records relating to this Agreement or claims in connection therewith.

D. NOTIFICATION OF LOSSES OR CLAIMS. The Company shall give prompt written notice to the Reinsurer:

- (1) of any occurrence or claim for which the Company's estimate of the value of injuries or damages sought, without regard to liability, might result in a judgment in an amount sufficient to involve this Agreement;
- (2) of any occurrence or claim for which the Company has created a loss reserve equal to or greater than one-half of the Company retention, if this reinsurance is on an excess of loss basis;
- (3) on the date on which the notice of claim is received by the Company, if this reinsurance is on a pro rata basis; and
- (4) of all material developments pertaining to any notice provided for hereunder.

E. HANDLING OF CLAIMS AND LAWSUITS. The Company shall investigate and defend all claims involving the reinsurance provided by this Agreement. While the Reinsurer does not undertake to investigate or defend claims or suits, it shall nevertheless have the right and be given the opportunity to associate with the Company and its representatives at its own expense in the defense and control of any claim, suit or proceeding involving this reinsurance with the full cooperation of the Company.

F. LOSSES PAYABLE. The Reinsurer shall indemnify the Company for all losses paid in accordance with the terms, conditions and limits of this Agreement and the terms, conditions and limits of the policy reinsured hereunder. The Reinsurer shall pay to the Company its proportion of such losses promptly following receipt of satisfactory proof of loss in the following manner:

(1) If the reinsurance is on an excess of loss basis, the amount of the Reinsurer's liability for losses hereunder shall be: its indicated proportion of the excess amount, if any, by which ultimate loss to the policy reinsured hereunder exceeds the amount or amounts in excess of which this reinsurance attaches, after first having deducted all recoveries from any source except those from such portions of other excess of loss reinsurance which do not overlap or duplicate this coverage.

(2) If this reinsurance is on a pro rata basis, the amount of the Reinsurer's liability for each loss shall be: the proportion that the sum reinsured hereunder bears to the total sum insured by the reinsured policy at the time this Agreement becomes effective or at the time of loss, whichever proportion is less (unless otherwise endorsed hereto). In addition, the Reinsurer shall pay its proportion of expenses covered by the policy reinsured hereunder (other than Company salaries, travel and office expenses) and incurred by the Company in the investigation and settlement of claims or suits. Likewise, the Reinsurer shall pay its proportion of court costs and interest on that part of any judgment or settlement amount fixing the amount of the Company's insurance liability under the policy hereby reinsured, as follows:

(i) With respect to reinsurance on an excess of loss basis, in the ratio that the Reinsurer's loss payment bears to the Company's gross loss payment under the policy reinsured. In the event there is no loss payment by the Reinsurer, there shall be no expense, court costs or interest payment.

(ii) With respect to reinsurance on a pro rata basis, in the ratio that the Reinsurer's limit of liability bears to the Company's gross limit of liability under the policy reinsured.

G. REFUNDS. The Company shall pay the Reinsurer its proportion of refunds, i.e reimbursement obtained or recovery made by the Company. If the reinsurance is on an excess of loss basis, the refund shall be applied in the inverse order in which liability attaches. All costs (other than Company salaries, travel and office expenses) of such refund shall be borne by the Company and the Reinsurer in proportion to the ultimate benefits accruing to each of them.

H. TAXES. The Company shall be liable for all taxes (except income taxes) on business ceded to the Reinsurer under this Agreement.

I. INSOLVENCY. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, reinsurance under this Agreement shall be payable by the Reinsurer on the basis of the liability of the Company, without diminution because of such insolvency, directly to the Company or its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor, in accordance with the legal rules applying in the Company's country for companies in liquidation. Nothing contained herein shall create any obligation for the Reinsurer or establish any rights against the Reinsurer in favour of the Company's policyholder or any other person not party to the Agreement.

The Reinsurer shall be notified in writing of any pending claim likely to invoke the reinsurance afforded by this Agreement within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding. The Reinsurer shall have the right to investigate each such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceedings where the claim is to be adjudicated, any defense which it may deem available to the Company or its liquidator, receiver, or statutory successor. The expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, to the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit that may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer.

J. COMMERCIAL USAGE AND APPLICABLE LAW.

(1) This Agreement shall be governed by the commercial usage and practice of international reinsurance business and by the law applying in the Company's country. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and commercial usage and practice and the applicable law, the arrangements made under this Agreement shall take precedence. In the event of conflict between commercial usage and the applicable law, the former shall take precedence over the latter, to the extent permitted by the law applying.

(2) Should the laws, regulations or public order declare, in an express and indubitable way, any condition of this Agreement to be illegal or non-executable, such condition shall be deemed null and void; however, this shall not affect either the validity or the executive force of any other conditions established in this Agreement.

(3) This article shall remain in force even if this Agreement is cancelled.

K. ARBITRATION. Any dispute between the Company and the Reinsurer arising out of the provisions of this Agreement or concerning its interpretation or validity shall be submitted to arbitration. The arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the laws applying in the Company's country. To the extent permitted by the laws of the Company's country, the following rules shall apply:

(1) Any party may initiate arbitration by giving written notice to the other party of its intention to do so, together with the name of its selected arbitrator.

(2) Within 30 days of receiving such notice the other party shall appoint an arbitrator.

(3) In the event that any party fails to appoint an arbitrator within the time specified, the other party shall have the right to appoint the said arbitrator in their place. The two arbitrators named shall select a third arbitrator.

(4) The arbitrators shall be officials or former officials of insurance or reinsurance companies not under the control or management of any of the parties to this Agreement.

(5) The arbitrators shall not be bound by judicial formalities or formal rules of evidence and shall give due consideration to the customs and usage of the insurance and reinsurance business.

(6) A majority decision in writing shall be final and binding.

(7) Unless otherwise allocated by the arbitrators, all costs of the arbitration proceedings, including the fees of the arbitrators, shall be borne equally by the parties.

L. CANCELLATION. Cancellation or annulment or termination or expiration of the policy reinsured hereunder shall result in automatic cancellation of this Agreement. This Agreement may be cancelled or annulled (or terminated) by the Company prior to the expiration date or the Reinsurer notifying the other party in writing at least thirty (30) days in advance, the cancellation being effective once that period has elapsed. Notification at the domicile established by the parties for the purposes hereof shall be deemed sufficient proof of exercise of the right to cancel by any of the parties. If the reinsured policy is cancelled or annulled (or terminated), the return premium hereunder shall be proportional to the original premium returned by the Company, subject to the stipulated Agreement minimum premium. If the Reinsurer cancels or annuls (or terminates), the return premium shall be on a pro rata basis with the Agreement minimum premium waived.

Claims Control Clause

Notwithstanding any provisions of this Contract to the contrary, it is a condition precedent to any liability of the Reinsurer under this Contract that:

1. The Reinsured shall notify Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation in writing, and shall obtain confirmation of receipt, of any loss event that could give rise to a claim under the present Contract. This notification shall be given at the latest seven days after the date on which the Reinsured became aware or should have been aware of the occurrence of the loss event.
2. The Reinsured shall provide Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation with all the information available, as well as that requested, pertaining to the said loss event and shall keep Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation informed of all developments concerning the adjustment of the claim.
3. In the event of a claim, Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation shall be entitled at any time to appoint adjusters, surveyors, inspectors, specialists and/or lawyers to conduct all negotiations, adjustments and settlements with respect to the claim in question.
4. The Reinsured shall cooperate with Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation and with any other person or persons designated by the latter in the investigation, adjustment and final settlement of the claim. The Reinsured shall obtain Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation's consent before arriving at any final settlement of the claim. Failure to comply with this obligation shall release Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation from its liability for the claim.
5. The Reinsured shall inform its other reinsurers, if any, of the appointment of the aforesaid adjusters, surveyors, inspectors, specialists and/or lawyers. The Reinsured undertakes to coordinate the allocation of the costs and fees incurred by or for the adjusters, surveyors, inspectors, specialists and/or lawyers in respect of the claim with its reinsurers, including Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation. These costs shall be apportioned in accordance with the percentage participation of each reinsurer in the contract(s) concerned.
6. Should the Reinsured fail to comply with any of the provisions of the present clause, Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation shall be released from all liability under the claim in question.

Our services

We offer a range of products from the insurance market and our services to you include:

- arranging insurance cover for you after you have agreed the cost and our charges (or the basis of such costs and charges if they cannot be determined precisely in advance);
- supplying appropriate insurance documentation; and
- assisting you with any claims, or changes that you wish to make, during the period of your insurance.

In providing quotations to our clients, we offer two distinct types of services depending on the nature of their requirements or the product available:

We may provide advice and make recommendations after seeking quotations on our clients' behalf. We may use a range of insurers and the Lloyd's market based on our experience and market conditions at the time. A list of those we approach is available upon request. Sometimes we will offer quotations under a Binding Authority which we underwrite on behalf of one or more insurers and we will tell you if this is the case.

We do not provide advice or make recommendations where we provide quotations under a scheme Binding Authority. We may ask some questions to establish that a client fits the criteria applicable to the scheme and they will then need to make their own choice about how to proceed. We will tell you if we provide you with a quotation under a scheme Binding Authority.

We are not contractually obliged to use a particular insurer or a limited number of insurers, including those subscribing to a Binding Authority.

Treating you fairly

We always aim to treat you fairly. This means that we will always endeavour to:

- conduct our business with due skill, care and integrity;
- never put ourselves in a position where our primary duty to you is compromised. If such a situation were to arise, then we would act in accordance with our Conflicts of Interests Policy, a copy of which is available upon request;

- deal with any complaint sympathetically and independently of the colleague to whom the complaint is directed;
- be transparent in the matter of our remuneration; and
- respect your confidentiality.

Handling your money Non-Statutory trust fund

We hold all client money, including yours, in a non statutory trust fund as permitted by our regulator, the effect of which is to ring-fence client money from general creditors in the event of our financial failure or that of the bank or other third party by whom the money may be held. Provided we meet certain conditions, we are entitled to, and do, mix these monies with those that we hold on insurers' behalf although clients have first call on the funds in this case.

Under these arrangements we are allowed to use such monies to cross-fund clients' premiums and claims.

The fact that we hold money on trust gives rise to fiduciary duties, which, except in the case of Risk Transfer (see below) will be owed to you until client money reaches the insurer or product provider.

Risk Transfer

Some insurers, as an added protection to our clients, have agreed that monies collected by us from clients and held to the account of insurers (or claims monies held for payment to our clients) will be considered by those insurers as their money ('Risk Transfer'). This does mean however that in the case of insolvency of the insurer we may be required to remit premiums to the Administrator or Liquidator and may be prevented from passing claims monies received to clients.

Where we act as agents of insurers for the purposes of holding or receiving claim payments or return premiums we will remit them to such parties as insurers direct us to pay.

Bank accounts

We normally deposit client monies in approved banks in the United Kingdom. The exceptions occur when it is necessary to effect a particular transaction on a particular client's behalf. In these cases we will hold the monies in a designated bank account so that it is not pooled with other monies and will not hold it in a non-approved bank for any longer than is necessary.

Payment to third parties

We may transfer client money to another person, such as another broker or settlement agent, for the purpose of effecting a transaction on a particular client's behalf. Such a person may be outside the United Kingdom.

Clients should note that monies held in non approved banks or banks outside the United Kingdom may be treated differently in the event of failure of the bank, in accordance with the legal and regulatory regime applicable in the territory concerned.

Segregation of designated investments

We keep client money separate from our own. Instead of holding it as cash, we may sometimes hold separately permitted designated investments with a value at least equivalent to the money that would have been paid into the client money account. If we do this, we will be responsible for meeting any shortfall which is attributable to falls in the market value of the investment.

If you do not consent to us handling your money in the above ways, we may not be able to act on your Behalf.

Our remuneration

Our remuneration may be as a commission payable by insurers out of the premium you pay or a fee from you or, by agreement with you, a combination of both. We do not take credit for commissions due until the premium has been received from you. Fees and commissions are deemed fully earned even if your insurance is amended, terminated or cancelled during the period of cover. We may charge other fees for the production of policies or duplicate documents.

In addition, we may receive remuneration from insurers for services to them such as the operation of line slips or binding authorities; or which is based on the profitability or usage of certain schemes. Where we introduce clients to a Premium Finance company, we may receive an introducer's fee and further remuneration relating to the administrative services we perform for them. We may sometimes act as reinsurance brokers to insurers in relation to business that we have placed for clients with them.

Our Terms of Business

Howden >

We are remunerated separately by insurers for this work as they are our client in such circumstances and because it is a separate contract.

You are entitled, at any time, to request information regarding any commission which we may have received as a result of placing your insurance business.

In the handling of client money, we may also earn interest or benefit from foreign exchange differentials and it is a condition of doing business with us that you agree that we may retain such earnings.

Market security

Although we take care to assess the financial standing of insurers with whom we place business (most usually by considering the guidance provided by the rating agencies established for that purpose) it is your responsibility to satisfy yourself that any insurer with whom we may seek to arrange insurance on your behalf is acceptable to you.

We do not guarantee the solvency or continuing solvency of any insurer. In particular, you should be aware that the financial position of an insurer can change once your insurance has been placed with them and this may have an effect long after your insurance has expired if you have outstanding claims with them.

If you wish us to place insurance with an insurer with whom we would not normally transact business then we may require you to give us a written instruction to that effect.

Conflicts of interest

In the ordinary course of our business, we may become aware of circumstances that either risk compromising our duty to you or another client or both. We have procedures in place to manage these circumstances which may include ceasing to act for one or more parties.

Complaints

We take all complaints seriously and aim to deal with them speedily, sympathetically and independently in accordance with our Complaints Policy, a copy of which is available on request. In the first instance you should write to our Compliance Officer at our registered address or telephone him on 020 7623 3806.

If we consider that your complaint does not relate to our services (for example, if it relates to the actions of your insurer) we will forward your complaint and provide you with appropriate contact details.

If your turnover is less than £1,000,000 you may be entitled to refer any complaint against us to the Financial Ombudsman Service. We will give you full details of how to contact the service at the appropriate time.

Evidence of Insurance Cover

We will produce a Broker Insurance Document (BID) or Certificate as evidence of insurance. We issue a BID in our capacity as your agent and it is not insurer-approved. We will not issue you with a Policy unless expressly requested to do so by you or if local law requires us to do so.

Your responsibilities

In order for us to fulfil our responsibilities to you, you must:

- confirm all instructions to us in writing;
- read the documentation we send you and let us know if there is anything that is unclear or that does not represent your requirements;
- comply with the terms and conditions of any insurance we arrange for you, including those that specify:
  - a date by which premium must be received by insurers;
  - notification of a loss, claim or circumstances that might give rise to a claim as failure to comply could invalidate our insurance.
- provide information that we request in a timely manner;
- pay all invoices promptly with cleared funds and in the currency stipulated;
- act with utmost good faith in your dealings with your insurers including whilst dealing with them through us;
- disclose all material information about the risks you are seeking to protect by purchasing insurance, before the contract is concluded or at any other time when providing information to your insurers as required by your insurance including during the period of cover;

Our Terms of Business

Howden >

- complete any proposal form accurately and truthfully.

Note:

All information and every fact or circumstance which is known to you (or which ought to be known to you in the ordinary course of your business) is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer in fixing the premium or determining whether, and on what terms, he would take the risk. Failure to disclose material information may limit your rights under your insurance or invalidate it entirely. If in any doubt about something which may be material, you should disclose it.

Whilst our claims department (+44 20 7648 7250) will be happy to discuss any claim or potential claim with you, insurers will require a letter, fax or some other form of written advice from you, usually via ourselves, before accepting that they have been notified. To ensure your claims notifications are promptly dealt with, we are only able to accept email notifications to newclaims@howdenins.co.uk

Termination of this agreement

This agreement may be terminated by either party giving 30 days' notice to the other at their last known address.

Upon termination, we shall:

- be entitled to all fees and commissions that have been paid or are due to be paid for insurances already placed;

- transfer all of your files to you or another party nominated by you unless you request us to continue certain work, including claims handling, and we are able to continue and agree to do so and have agreed appropriate additional remuneration with you.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

We are covered by this scheme and you may be entitled to compensation depending on the circumstances of the claim and if your turnover is less than £1,000,000.

In connection with the services we supply to wholesale or reinsurance clients, there is no access to the Financial Ombudsman's Service.

Document and information retention

It is our practice to retain information you supply and insurance documents produced by us or your insurers for business effected on your behalf for up to 15 years, either electronically or in paper form. For some types of insurance it is possible to make a claim long after its expiry date and therefore we recommend that you retain all your insurance documents safely.

Context

This document applies to all our client relationships including those with wholesale producers and insurers. Where the context so admits, 'you/yours' includes 'your client(s)'; and the term 'insurance' includes 'reinsurance'.

Important notice to our clients
This document sets out how we conduct business with all our clients and contains information that you may need to refer to in the event of a dispute. You should read this document carefully. 9th July 2009

Dear Sirs,

Insured: Instituto Costarricense de Electricidad (ICE)
Reinsured: Instituto Nacional De Seguros.
Type: All Risks Property

As the London placing broker, appointed by Hemispheric Reinsurance Group, we are becoming increasingly concerned with the current state of affairs. Foremost in our consideration is the continuity of reinsurance cover for ICE and INS as their insurers.

We have communicated our concerns to our principal, John Blake, the Managing Partner of Hemispheric and he has agreed that in this particular instance, we, Howden Insurance Brokers, should contact you directly on his behalf to remind you that :

- a) There are subjectivities applicable to your placement, non compliance with which could lead to cancellation of parts of your reinsurance coverage. One subjectivity in particular has required us to obtain specialist reports.
- b) There are Premium warranties which, where not complied with, would lead to cancellation of coverage

He has also instructed us to make the following proposals in respect of payment of premium within the terms/timescale of the Premium Payment Condition and compliance with the subjectivities imposed, in order to avoid cancellations on the part of reinsurers for lack of compliance within the agreed timescale.

We therefore suggest :

- 1) INS Authorise Willis to pay Howden Insurance Brokers 100% of the premium outstanding in order to comply with the Premium Payment Condition which was due 1st July 2009.
- 2) Howden Insurance Brokers will pay such outstanding premiums to reinsurers in order to comply with the remaining outstanding conditions/warranties.
- 3) Hemispheric will make available to Howden today all technical information that is required to provide appropriate responses to subjectivities outstanding.

Web: www.howdengroup.com

- 4) Once the above has been accomplished, and confirmation of coverage complete, Howden Insurance Brokers will allow one representative of Willis to review, at Howden offices, the placement documentation corresponding to the current property policy in order to certify to INS that
- 100% of the order made from INS to Hemispheric Reinsurance Group and thence to Howden Insurance Brokers has, in fact been placed, and is totally in effect and
  - that no grossing up has occurred.

Matters outstanding relating to appointment of brokers and transfer of information can, if required, recommence without prejudicing the ICE reinsurance placement at a later date.

We have also been instructed to point out that a very major subjectivity (referred to as 3 above) falls due at midnight tomorrow 10/7, the condition has already been extended and is now at the stage of being final. If we are therefore to be able to avoid breaches in your cover we would appreciate if we could have your response to this proposal overnight.

We are sending this email to you as we firmly believe this is the most sensible immediate solution for all parties involved. However, for the sake of formality, I am required to say that nothing in this email should be construed as creating any contractual or other legal relationship between Howden and INS.

Yours sincerely

July 24, 2009

Mr. Peter Van Tol
Lovells
590 Madison Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10022

Ref.: Instituto Nacional de Seguros ("INS")

Dear Mr. Van Tol:

We are in receipt of your Fax dated this afternoon and received by us this afternoon. In this regard, I would like to comment as follows:

1. HRG has noted that your firm has been appointed as legal counsel in representation of INS.
2. Our firm, Hemispheric Reinsurance Group, L.L.C. did, in fact, in conjunction with Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd. Of London, place the reinsurance on behalf of INS to cover 95% of 100% of the All Risk Property policy corresponding to the Instituto Costarricense de Electricidad (ICE), based on INS's firm order to us dated April 2, 2009 at 11:55 PM.
3. We were officially notified by our client (INS) for the very first time, via their Letter No. DR 1424-2009 to us dated July 14, 2009, and received in our offices via Fax after closing that evening, that Willis had been named to replace us as reinsurance intermediaries for this account, and instructing us to release Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd. in London to send the documents corresponding to the abovementioned placement to us for further remittance to our lawyer in Costa Rica, who would, in turn, deliver those documents over to INS immediately against proper receipts and releases. This was as per advice from our legal counsel in that country in view of the fact that your client has chosen to take legal action against us in that country.

HEMISPERIC

REINSURANCE GROUP, L.L.C.

4. On the morning of the 15th of July we received the Fax notification, reviewed it with our legal counsel, and on the 16th of July, instructed Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd. in London to send us urgently the documentation corresponding to the abovementioned placement.
5. On the same date, July 16, 2009, we advised Mr. Jose Leon Sanchez, Reinsurance Department Manager of INS, and copying Mr. Guillermo Costenla, Executive President of INS, Jose Angel Villalobos, General Manager of INS and Mrs. Guiselle Monge, Assistant Manager of INS' Reinsurance Department, advising that, following their instructions, I had instructed Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd. To release their documentation to us, and advised that we would be sending same to INS via our legal counsel in Costa Rica.
6. On July 21, we received 47 e-mails from Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd. attaching documentation corresponding to the mentioned placement, and commenced the process of organizing that data so that it could be sent to Costa Rica. In the process, we determined that several documents were, by mistake, not legible, and we requested the missing documents to Howden Insurance Brokers, Ltd. by telephone; however, we received from Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd. a couriered package on the morning of the 23 of July, which enabled us to complete the organization of the data received, and on the same day, sent the entire package of data received to Costa Rica via courier - the 23rd of July in the afternoon. UPS advised us that the package of data in question would be delivered today, July 24, 2009, or, because of possible delays due to customs inspection in that country, latest, Monday. For your information tracking data confirms that the package containing the corresponding documentation was received at the UPS facility in San Jose, Costa Rica this morning at 11:16AM.
7. We have advised INS today via e-mail (addressed to the same recipients) of the fact that such documentation has been couriered, and we have instructed our legal counsel in Costa Rica to deliver the documentation to INS immediately upon receipt in Costa Rica.
8. It should be noted that Hemispheric Reinsurance Group's first specific knowledge of the terms outlined in these slips was obtained when same were received by us from Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd. on July 21, 2009, with the exception of one slip from Liberty International Underwriters, which we were able to obtain from that Company directly and which we sent to INS several weeks ago.

In view of the above, Hemispheric Reinsurance Group, L.L.C., considers it has discharged its obligations to INS in a reasonable and responsible manner, and on a timely basis considering the date on which we received instructions from our client (INS) to release the documentation. Additionally, we have offered INS the opportunity of having Howden Insurance Brokers Ltd.'s assistance either directly or through Willis to ensure that any and all compliance with Payment Warranties or otherwise will be accomplished on a timely basis. Taking the above in consideration, and considering our turnover of such documentation, it will be unnecessary for your client to initiate any legal action for the production of documents in English Courts, and in view of the above, we will not accept responsibility for any costs incurred in such action by INS or Willis, or any other party.

The one possible exception to the above relates to a study performed by C. Lewis and Co., Forensic Accountants, which was a subjectivity of reinsurers upon placement, and of which we clearly notified your client (INS) in our Slip of Confirmation sent to them on April 23, 2009. Since your client paid no heed to such subjectivity, in spite of our insistence relating to the existence of same, in order to avoid non-compliance, Howden and ourselves appointed, at our expense, the firm of C. Lewis to perform the corresponding work. They did so, and we forwarded the resulting report to reinsurers within the subjectivity deadline – we also advised INS as to the findings of that report, which indicates a substantial underinsurance as respects the insured values reported to us, and thus reinsurers, by INS. I have advised INS today that we are more than happy to release this report to them upon reimbursement of the cost charged by C. Lewis and Co. (I have attached C. Lewis' invoice for their ready reference), and will be glad to turn this over at such time as we are reimbursed by INS.

Sincerely,
